MR A. P. Sinnett, formerly connected with our morning contemporary, not fired with expounding esoteric Buddhism in Karma, is going to bring out another tale called United, devoted to the mysteries of Theosophy, &c.

WE are requested to state that, by kind permission of Captain Donton, Divine Service will be conducted on board the British ship Hallowe'en by the Rev. A. G. Goldsmith, Seaman's Chaplain, to-morrow, Sunday, at 11 o'clock. The Bethel Flag will be hoisted on board.

THE prisoner recently captured by the Chinese authorities, who is said to have confessed to the murder of the woman at Taikok-sui, which took place more than a year ago, has, we learn, been sent to the mandarin in charge of the Sun On district for

THE Kowloon Wharves and Godowns Company continue to receive abundant patronage. Yesterday there were no less than five vessels alongside their Piers discharging and loading, viz., the steamers Port Jack-Applications for Shares in the Hongkong son and Afghan, the ships Zouge and Stephan and the barque Hermann. Other vessels are expected to go alongside soon. and the godowns are so full that it is difficult to find storage room, especially for coal.

> A LOAN for Tls. 800,000 has just been contracted for by the Canton authorities, on behalf of the Chinese Imperial Government, through Mr Oscar Brandt, of Measrs Brandt and Co. here, with the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation, We are glad to see that the local institution has once more been successful in the face of strong competition in obtaining a good piece of business.

> WE note from English papers received yesterday that the commercial congress convened by the London Chamber of Commerce was to meet at the Colonial and Indian Exhibition on July 6 and 7. The Hongkong Chamber was to have been represented by the Hon. Mr Keswick, but this gentleman having been detained in the Far East, the Chamber would probably be represented by Mr Macandrew.

> We note that Mr Cabert Chadwick, C.E., who three years ago made a careful survey of the sanitary condition of Hongkong, and compiled an exhaustive report on the subject, has been appointed an ordinary member of the Third Class, or Companion, of the Order of St. Michael and St. George. for services rendered in connection with hydraulic and sanitary works in several

Lan A U was charged at the Police Court to-day, at the instance of James Redpath, fireman, with being unlawfully in possession of a rug, a blanket, two pairs of trousers, 1836 and a shirt, value $4. The complainant said he was a fireman living at the Sailors' Home. The articles had been hung up to dry in the passage and he last saw them on Thursday night. The rug was found outside accused's shop and the other articles in a shop close by, to which accused conducted Constable Robinson. The prisoner was fined $10, with the option of a month's im-

James Sweeny was charged at the Police Court this morning before Mr. Mitchell Innes with being in the Temperance Hall last night for a supposed unlawful purpose Mr T. Carpenter, the manager of the Hall, said he was sent for at half past seven togo to a room in the building. He found the accused in the room and gave him in charge. Harry Chase, a marine residing at the Hall, said that while he was sitting in a chair in That some of those who followed the his room yesterday evening, with the light turned out, the accused tripped up lightly, to the door, stopped about 20 seconds and then peeped in. The sailor asked Sweeney to come in, which he did, and caked if he could get a night's lodgings. He had been sent to inquire by a man at the door, whose name he did not know. The accused was sentenced to two weeks' hard labour.

THE hand grounde fire extinguisher has not yet entirely established its reputation for officiency even in the land of its birth, and. there are still skeptics, in high places who refuse to believe it is so mightily officacious as some of its enterprising canvassers would have us believe, as witness the following That the 'cornering' of youthful speculators paragraph from the American Machinist -Considerable doubt as to the efficiency hand groundes for extinguishing fires is expressed by those who have had experience with them. That they do not, however, always get a fair test for such merits as they have is shown by the following: -It is stated that at a test of hand grenades before the National Association of Fire Engineers. at Long Branch, a small wooden house vas built and coated with tar and oil. When thoroughly ablaze, a committee of commitsioners was to give the word for hand grenades to be thrown. The commissioners didn't give the word at all, and the ire went out unaided after the tar and oil had been consumed. The hand grenade agents retired thoroughly disgusted. In another instance the Salem city council committee on public property, having reason to believe that the hand grenades distributed in the public buildings were deteriorating, thought That 'to know all about it beforehand' it would experiment with some in a schoolhouse basement one day last week. So the committee built up a little fire, and then began to break hand grenades on it. After throwing twenty-five, the fire still burned briskly, but a handful of snow extinguish-

THE Effect of Mr Gladstone's Irish proposals on the native population of India, (says the Home and Colonial Mail,) will be felt at once. The people of India are not deficient in the art of agitation, and thov will certainly take the oue from Ireland. In fact, if Mr Gladstone's policy is right. we ought to begin to cave in all round, and bow down before the agitator, wether he be from Tipperary or Bengal. GREAT EXCITEMENT IN WALES ABOUT A MARVELLOUS CURE. LIVING SIX YEARS WITHOUT GOING TO BED.

Mr Editor.—While spending a few days at the pleasant sesside town of Aberystwith, Cardiganshire, Wales, I heard related what seemed to me either a fabulous story or a marvellous cure.

The story was that a poor sufferer who had not been able to lie down in bed for six long years, given up to die by all the Doctors, had been speedily cured by some Patent Medicine. It was related with the more implicit confidence from the circum- Scale. stance, as was said, that the Vicar of Llanrystyd was familiar with the facts, and could youch for the truth of the report.

Having a little curiosity to know how such stories grow in travelling, I took the w dew (wet). liberty while at the village of Llanrystyd to call upon the Vicar, the Rev. T. Evans, and to enquire about this wonderful cure. Though a total stranger to him, both he and his wife most graciously entertained me in a half hour's conversation, principally touching the case of Mr Pugh, in which they seemed to take a deep and sympathetic interest, having been familiar with his sufferings, and now rejoiced in what seemed to them a most remarkable cure.

The Vicar remarked that he presumed his name had been connected with the report from his having mentioned the case to said Mr Pugh was formerly a resident of their parish, but was now living in the parish of Llanddeinol.

He strongly vonched Mr Wm. Pugh's character as a respectable farmer and worthy of credit. I left the venerable Vicar with a livelier sonse of the happy relation of a pastor and people, feeling that he was one who truly sympathised with all who are afflicted in mind, body, or estate.

On my return to Aberystwith, I was impressed with a desire to see Mr. Pugh, whose reputation stood so high. His farm is called Pancom-Mawr, signifying 'above the dingle,' situated near the summit of a smooth round-hill, overlooking a beautifulvalley in which is situated the lovely ivymantled Church of Llanddeinel. I found Mr Pugh, apparently about 40 years old, of medium height, rather slight, with a pleas ant and intelligent face. I told him I had heard of his great affliction and of his remarkable and almost miraculous relief, and that I had come to learn from his own lips, what there was of truth in the reports. Mr Pugh remarked that his neighbours had taken a kindly and sympathetic interest in his case for many years, but of late their. interest had been greatly awakened by a happy change in his condition. My affliction seemed to be working downward into my bowels as well as upwards into my lungs and throat. In the violent coughing spasms which grew more frequent, my abdomen would expand and collapse and at times it would seem that I should suffocate. All this time I was roduced in strength so that I could perform no hard labour and my spirits were con-

This medicine they administered to me according to the directions, when to their surprise and delight no less than my own, the spasm ceased, I became at ease, and my stomach was calmed. My bowels were moved as by a gentle cathartic, and felt a sense of quiet comfort all through such as I had not before realized in many years. I could walk around the house and breathe comfortably in a few hours eiter I had taken the medicine. I have continued to take the medicine daily now for something over two months, and I can le down and aleep sweetly at nights and have not since had a recurrence of those terrible spasms and sweatings. I have been so long broken down and reduced in my whole system that I have not tried to perform any very hard out-door labour, deeming it best to be prudent lest by over-exertion I may do myself injury before my strength is fully restored. I feel that my stomach and bowels have been and are being thoroughly renovated and renewed

I have been much congratulated by my neighbours, especially by the good Vicar of Llanrystyd, who with his sympathetic wife have come three miles to shed tears of

I bade Mr Pugh goodbye, happy that even one at least among thousands had found a remedy for an aggravating disease. Believing this remarkable case of Dyspeptic Asthma should be known to the public, I beg to submit the above facts as they are related to me. F. T. W.
